

Activists shut down event for California candidates to U.S. Senate

Image not found or type unknown

Sacramento, November 21 (RHC)-- Palestinian rights advocates shut down a convention organized by the California Democratic Party in Sacramento. Several protesters held a sit-in, while others marched through the convention hall chanting "Ceasefire now."

Demonstrators disrupted speeches by U.S. Senate candidates, Congressmembers Katie Porter, Adam Schiff and Barbara Lee.

Outside the convention, protesters placed 500 pairs of children's shoes to represent the over 5,000 Palestinian children killed in Gaza.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/339996-activists-shut-down-event-for-california-candidates-to-us-senate>

Radio Habana Cuba