

Protesters rally at Seattle Space Needle to demand Gaza ceasefire

Image not found or type unknown

Seattle, November 22 (RHC)-- In the U.S. city of Seattle, hundreds of people blocked the main entrance of the Space Needle observation tower in a Jewish-led peaceful act of civil disobedience calling for an immediate ceasefire in Gaza.

Protesters flew a 40-foot-tall banner that read "Ceasefire Now!" in the air buoyed by large balloons.

They're demanding Washington Senators Patty Murray and Maria Cantwell, both Democrats, join growing congressional calls for a ceasefire. The action was organized by the Seattle chapter of Jewish

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/340053-protectors-rally-at-seattle-space-needle-to-demand-gaza-ceasefire>

Radio Habana Cuba