

Israel's genocidal war machine continues to grind on without agreed pause in sight

Image not found or type unknown

Smoke and fire rise above buildings during Israeli strikes on the Khan Younis area in the southern Gaza Strip [Said Khatib/AFP]

Gaza City, November 23 (RHC)-- Israel continues its barbaric, deadly air attacks and heavy shelling across the Gaza Strip as it remains unclear when an expected, four-day pause in fighting will begin.

Israeli official says no Gaza captives will be released before Friday as part of Qatar-mediated truce agreement, which was originally scheduled to begin on Thursday.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/340165-israels-genocidal-war-machine-continues-to-grind-on-without-agreed-pause-in-sight>

Radio Habana Cuba