

Cuban Baseball Elite League resumes today

Havana, November 27 (ACN) - The leader Sancti Spíritus will face Matanzas in the beginning of new subseries in the II Elite League of Cuban baseball this Monday.

In addition to the duel between the Espirituano Gallos and Cocodrilos de Matanzas, Industriales-Artemisa and Santiago de Cuba will play against Las Tunas.

After Saturday's results, Sancti Spíritus leads (10-5) followed by Industriales (10-6), Artemisa (8-8), Matanzas (7-8), Las Tunas (7-9) and Santiago de Cuba (5-11).

On Saturday, the Gallos defeated Santiago de Cuba 7-0, with an offense of 12 hits, led by Yaser Julio González, 4-3 with two RBIs.

Raidel Alfonso got the win from the mound, with 6.1 innings of work and only one hit allowed with six strikeouts.

The Spíritus victory was combined with Industriales' 4x7 loss to Las Tunas.

In the other game of the most recent day, Matanzas beat Artemisa 5x3.
