

Protesters at NYC tree-lighting ceremony call for end to genocide, saying that Christmas is canceled

Image not found or type unknown

A large, thick gray 'X' is drawn over a white square area. The 'X' is composed of two diagonal lines that intersect in the center. The square is defined by a thin gray border. The 'X' is positioned such that it covers most of the square area, leaving only a small margin at the top and bottom.

New York City, November 30 (RHC)-- In New York City, hundreds of peaceful protesters led by a group of interfaith organizers gathered in midtown Manhattan to demand an end to Israel's assault on Gaza and its occupation of Palestinian lands, on the occasion of the annual Rockefeller Center Christmas tree lighting ceremony.

Hordes of police officers were deployed to the event as activists ultimately gathered in front of the nearby News Corp building to rally.

Nerdeen Kiswani of the group Within Our Lifetime told reporters: "We stand here on the International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People in solidarity with Jerusalem's 13 official churches and the entire municipality of Bethlehem — and the entire municipality of Bethlehem, who have called for mobilization, not celebration."

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/340880-protesters-at-nyc-tree-lighting-ceremony-call-for-end-to-genocide-saying-that-christmas-is-canceled>

Radio Habana Cuba