

Council of State Secretary Speaks on Cuban Judiciary Model Upgrade

Havana, September 19 (RHC) -- Cuba's Secretary of the Council of State, Homero Acosta Álvarez will speak about the current upgrading of the Cuban judiciary model, a essential step in the sustainable development of the nation.

The speech will end the International Law Congress 2014 held here in Havana. The event promoted debates on issues of national interest raising the awareness of over 600 participants from 18 countries.

The forum support exchanges about the new Foreign Investment Law recently enacted in Cuba, trade relations and international arbitration, law on the economic and labor sectors, among other current and new issues of great interest in Cuba and abroad.

The National Organization of Collective Lawyer's Offices, sponsor of the event, is working to make more efficient the work of lawyers who should give a quality service to the people and accomplish legislative changes taking place in the country.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/34095-council-of-state-secretary-speaks-on-cuban-judiciary-model-upgrade>

Radio Habana Cuba