

Arizona police arrest protesters and journalist covering blockade of Raytheon building

Image not found or type unknown

Tucson, December 1 (RHC)-- In the U.S. state of Arizona, 26 people were arrested Thursday as protesters peacefully blockaded a Raytheon manufacturing hub in Tucson, demanding an end to U.S. arms transfers to Israel.

As she was dragged away by police, one protester said: “We are outraged that more than 15,000 Palestinians have been killed, while companies like Raytheon continue to fill their coffers with blood money.”

Among those arrested was journalist Alisa Reznick of public radio station KJZZ. She was arrested by Pima County Sheriff’s deputies even as she carried recording equipment and repeatedly identified herself as press.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/340996-arizona-police-arrest-protesters-and-journalist-covering-blockade-of-raytheon-building>

Radio Habana Cuba