

Díaz-Canel tours productive and social areas of Havana

Havana, January 29 (RHC) --The First Secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba (CC-PCC) and President of the Republic, Miguel Díaz-Canel toured productive areas and centers of high social impact in the municipality of Arroyo Naranjo, in Havana, as part of the party visits he has been making since the beginning of the year.

Accompanied by the secretary of organization of the PCC, Roberto Morales Ojeda, and the top party leadership in the capital, the dignitary spoke with doctors and nurses of the territory to learn about the prospects of the government's decision to make additional payments to workers in the health and education sectors.

Díaz-Canel learned that after the measure, more than 340 professionals, including 279 nurses, have returned to work, reported the Presidency of the Republic on the social network X.

The head of state paid an emotional visit to the Children's Home for Children without Family Care where ten infants, between one and seven years old, receive full-time care.

For 27 years, the place has taken care of children in vulnerable situations, which was recognized by the President of the Caribbean nation.
