

U.S. students continue hunger strike to demand divestment from arms makers supplying Israel

Image not found or type unknown

Hunger strikers at Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island. STOP THE GENOCIDE!!

Providence, February 6 (RHC)-- Protests are continuing across the U.S. against Israel's assault on Gaza.

In Louisville, Kentucky, 15 people were arrested after they blocked the entrances to offices of military contractors Raytheon and BAE Systems.

Meanwhile, 19 students at Brown University have entered their fourth day on hunger strike to urge Brown to divest from weapons manufacturers who are arming Israel.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/346404-us-students-continue-hunger-strike-to-demand-divestment-from-arms-makers-supplying-israel>

Radio Habana Cuba