Havana, February 10 (RHC) -- Celinda Sosa Lunda, foreign minister of the Plurinational State of Bolivia, will arrive this Sunday in Cuba for a working visit until February 13th.

According to the Cuban Foreign Ministry on its official website, during her stay, Sosa Lunda will hold talks with Bruno Rodríguez Parrilla, her Cuban counterpart, and will carry out other activities of interest.

Celinda Sosa Lunda took office as Chancellor of Bolivia in November last year and is the first indigenous woman to hold that position in her country.
