Columbia University in New York City sued for banning pro-Palestinian student groups

New York, March 13 (RHC)-- The New York Civil Liberties Union and Palestine Legal have filed a lawsuit against Columbia University for suspending two pro-Palestine student groups, Students for Justice in Palestine and Jewish Voice for Peace.

The groups were suspended last November after organizing peaceful protests against Israel's occupation and war on Gaza.

https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/349626-columbia-university-in-new-york-citysued-for-banning-pro-palestinian-student-groups

Radio Habana Cuba