

Smith College students in U.S. continue occupation calling for school to divest from weapons manufacturers

Image not found or type unknown

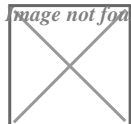

Image Credit: @Smith_SJP

Northampton, April 1 (RHC)-- Students at Smith College in the U.S. state of Massachusetts have entered their sixth day occupying an administrative building.

The students are calling on the school to divest from weapons manufacturers.

The protest is being led by the Smith College chapter of Students for Justice in Palestine, on the campus of the Northampton, Massachusetts school.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/351127-smith-college-students-in-us-continue-occupation-calling-for-school-to-divest-from-weapons-manufacturers>

Radio Habana Cuba