

*Gazans continue to lose children,
parents, loved ones as Israeli attacks continue with total
impunity*

A large, thick gray 'X' is drawn over a white square area. The 'X' is composed of two diagonal lines that intersect in the center. The square is defined by a thin gray border. The 'X' is positioned such that it covers most of the square area, leaving a small margin at the top and bottom. The text 'Image not found or type unknown' is located at the top left of the square, just below the main title.

Rafah, April 17 (RHC)-- An Israeli airstrike destroyed a mosque and homes in Gaza's northern Jabaliya refugee camp. Many were reported injured, including children. Another attack on the Nuseirat refugee camp killed at least three people.

In Rafah, grieving family members at the al-Najjar Hospital said their final goodbyes today to loved ones who were killed in an overnight Israeli airstrike. A Palestinian mother, Umm Rami Shabat, told reporters: "I lost my feelings. I lost my feelings. I don't have feelings anymore. Do I have feelings still? I am going crazy. They should put me with my son. My son was very dear to me. He had five daughters and a son. His son is only 1 year old. He brought them to me for Eid, to sleep over, and they left, as if he was saying goodbye to them. This boy is attached to his father."
