Havana, April 24 (RHC)-- Cuban President Miguel Díaz-Canel has traveled to Venezuela to participate in the 23rd Summit of the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America-Peoples' Trade Treaty (ALBA-TCP), to be held today in Caracas.

The meeting will address the presentation of the 2030 Strategic Agenda, which comprises five areas: economic, political, social, cultural and communications.

The previous ALBA-TCP summit was held in December 2022 in Havana, where participants reaffirmed their commitment to strengthening the bloc as an instrument of unity, based on the principles of solidarity, social justice, cooperation and economic complementarity. (Source: Prensa Latina)
