Havana, April 28 (RHC)-- Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez today thanked the demonstrations of solidarity with his country, carried out monthly by friends and compatriots in various regions of the world against the blockade imposed by the United States.

The head of Cuban diplomacy highlighted on social network images of friends in solidarity with Cuba in Argentina, Bahamas, Saint Kitts and Nevis and Canada, demanding the end of the economic, commercial and financial blockade.

In Bolivia, dozens of people from various leftist forces expressed their repudiation of the blockade in the Plaza Mayor of San Francisco, in La Paz.

Graduates of the Latin American School of Medicine, members of the Guevarista Movement of Bolivia/ELN, representatives of the Communist Party of Bolivia and its youth organization and activists affiliated with the Bolivian Movement of Solidarity with Cuba-La Paz, starred in this mobilization.

Since 1992, the international community has ratified at the United Nations its rejection of the North American blockade, a unilateral policy reinforced to unprecedented levels during the impact of Covid-19 with the marked purpose of strangling the economy of the Caribbean country to provoke a change. of regime.
