Prime Minister of Cuba attends inauguration of FITCuba 2024

Havana, May 2 (RHC) Cuban Prime Minister Manuel Marrero attended today the inauguration of the 42nd International Tourism Fair (FITCuba 2024), dedicated this year to Latin America and the Caribbean.

The event, scheduled until May 5, is held in Jardines del Rey, in Cuban central province of Ciego de Ávila, and is attended by more than 670 professionals from different countries and 80 specialized journalists.

The most representative markets present are Spain and Mexico, followed by Colombia, Italy and Canada.

FITCuba 2024 takes place a few days before the 69th meeting of the UN Tourism Regional Commission for the Americas, a space attended by 24 Ministers of Tourism from the member countries. (Source: PL)
