Tehran, May 20 (RHC)-- Rescue teams have located the wreckage of the helicopter that crashed on Sunday while carrying Iranian President Ebrahim Raisi and his companions in northwestern Iran.

Pir-Hossein Koulivand, head of the Iranian Red Crescent Society (IRCS), announced the information in televised remarks on Monday.

The helicopter that was transporting the Iranian chief executive and Foreign Minister Hossein Amir-Abdollahian along with others, encountered difficulties and was forced to make a "hard landing" in the Iranian province of East Azerbaijan's city of Jolfa on Sunday.
