

Cuba reaffirms position against terrorism in all its forms

Image not found or type unknown

Bombs placed by U.S.-paid mercenaries exploded at Cuban hotels in August and September 1998.

Image: X BrunoRguezP

Havana, May 21 (RHC)-- The Minister of Foreign Affairs of Cuba, Bruno Rodríguez, today reaffirmed his country's position of absolute and categorical rejection of all terrorist acts, methods and practices, in all their forms and manifestations.

On social network X, the highest representative of Cuban diplomacy affirmed that this position is maintained regardless of the motivation, the perpetrator, the victims, and where these acts are perpetrated.

Our policy is clear: No terrorism!

In his message, Cuba's foreign minister published a photo of one of those violent acts, organized, financed and perpetrated for decades mainly from the territory of the United States, with the tolerance, complicity and protection of the government of that country, at a cost of more of three thousand 400 fatalities, and 2 thousand 99 disabled. (Source: Prensa Latina)

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/355260-cuba-reaffirms-position-against-terrorism-in-all-its-forms>

Radio Habana Cuba