

Protesters at German Embassy in Tel Aviv demand Berlin stop arming genocide

Tel Aviv, June 9 (RHC)-- A group of protesters gathered in front of the German Embassy in Israel's capital, Tel Aviv, called on Berlin to halt arms exports to Israel, Anadolu Agency reports.

Protesters sitting at the entrance of the Embassy held signs, reading "Stop arming Israel", "Don't you have enough blood on your hands?" and "For once, be on the right side of history." The protesters also chanted slogans such as "Germany, you can't hide, you're complicit in genocide."

Israeli police removed protesters sitting in front of the embassy by force and detained five individuals.

In a written statement made on behalf of the group after the protest, it was stated that Israel used German weapons in the massacres in the Gaza Strip.

The attention was drawn to Germany ranking second among countries exporting arms to Israel last year, with 47 per cent. Number one, of course, is the United States.

Protesters also sent a letter to the German Ambassador to Tel Aviv, Steffen Seibert, urging the Berlin government to stop arms exports to Israel.
