

Bronze victory for Cuba in continental under 21 volleyball (m)

Havana, June 17 (ACN) -- Cuba defeated Puerto Rico 3-1 and won a bronze medal in the Men's Continental Championship of North, Central America and the Caribbean (Norceca) under 21 Volleyball, based in Mexico, where the undefeated United States United won the title.

With this result, the Cubans could not retain the crown they achieved in the previous edition, but they achieved their eighth medal in this type of competition.

The disciples of coach Lian Sem Estrada had a bad start, but then won the next three, with the highlight being the giant Daniel Martínez, author of 30 points, 23 in attack.

The United States defeated Canada 3-0 in the final in an undefeated duel.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/deportes/357590-bronze-victory-for-cuba-in-continental-under-21-volleyball-m>

Radio Habana Cuba