

I International Biennial of Political Humor runs through Friday, June 28th, in Havana

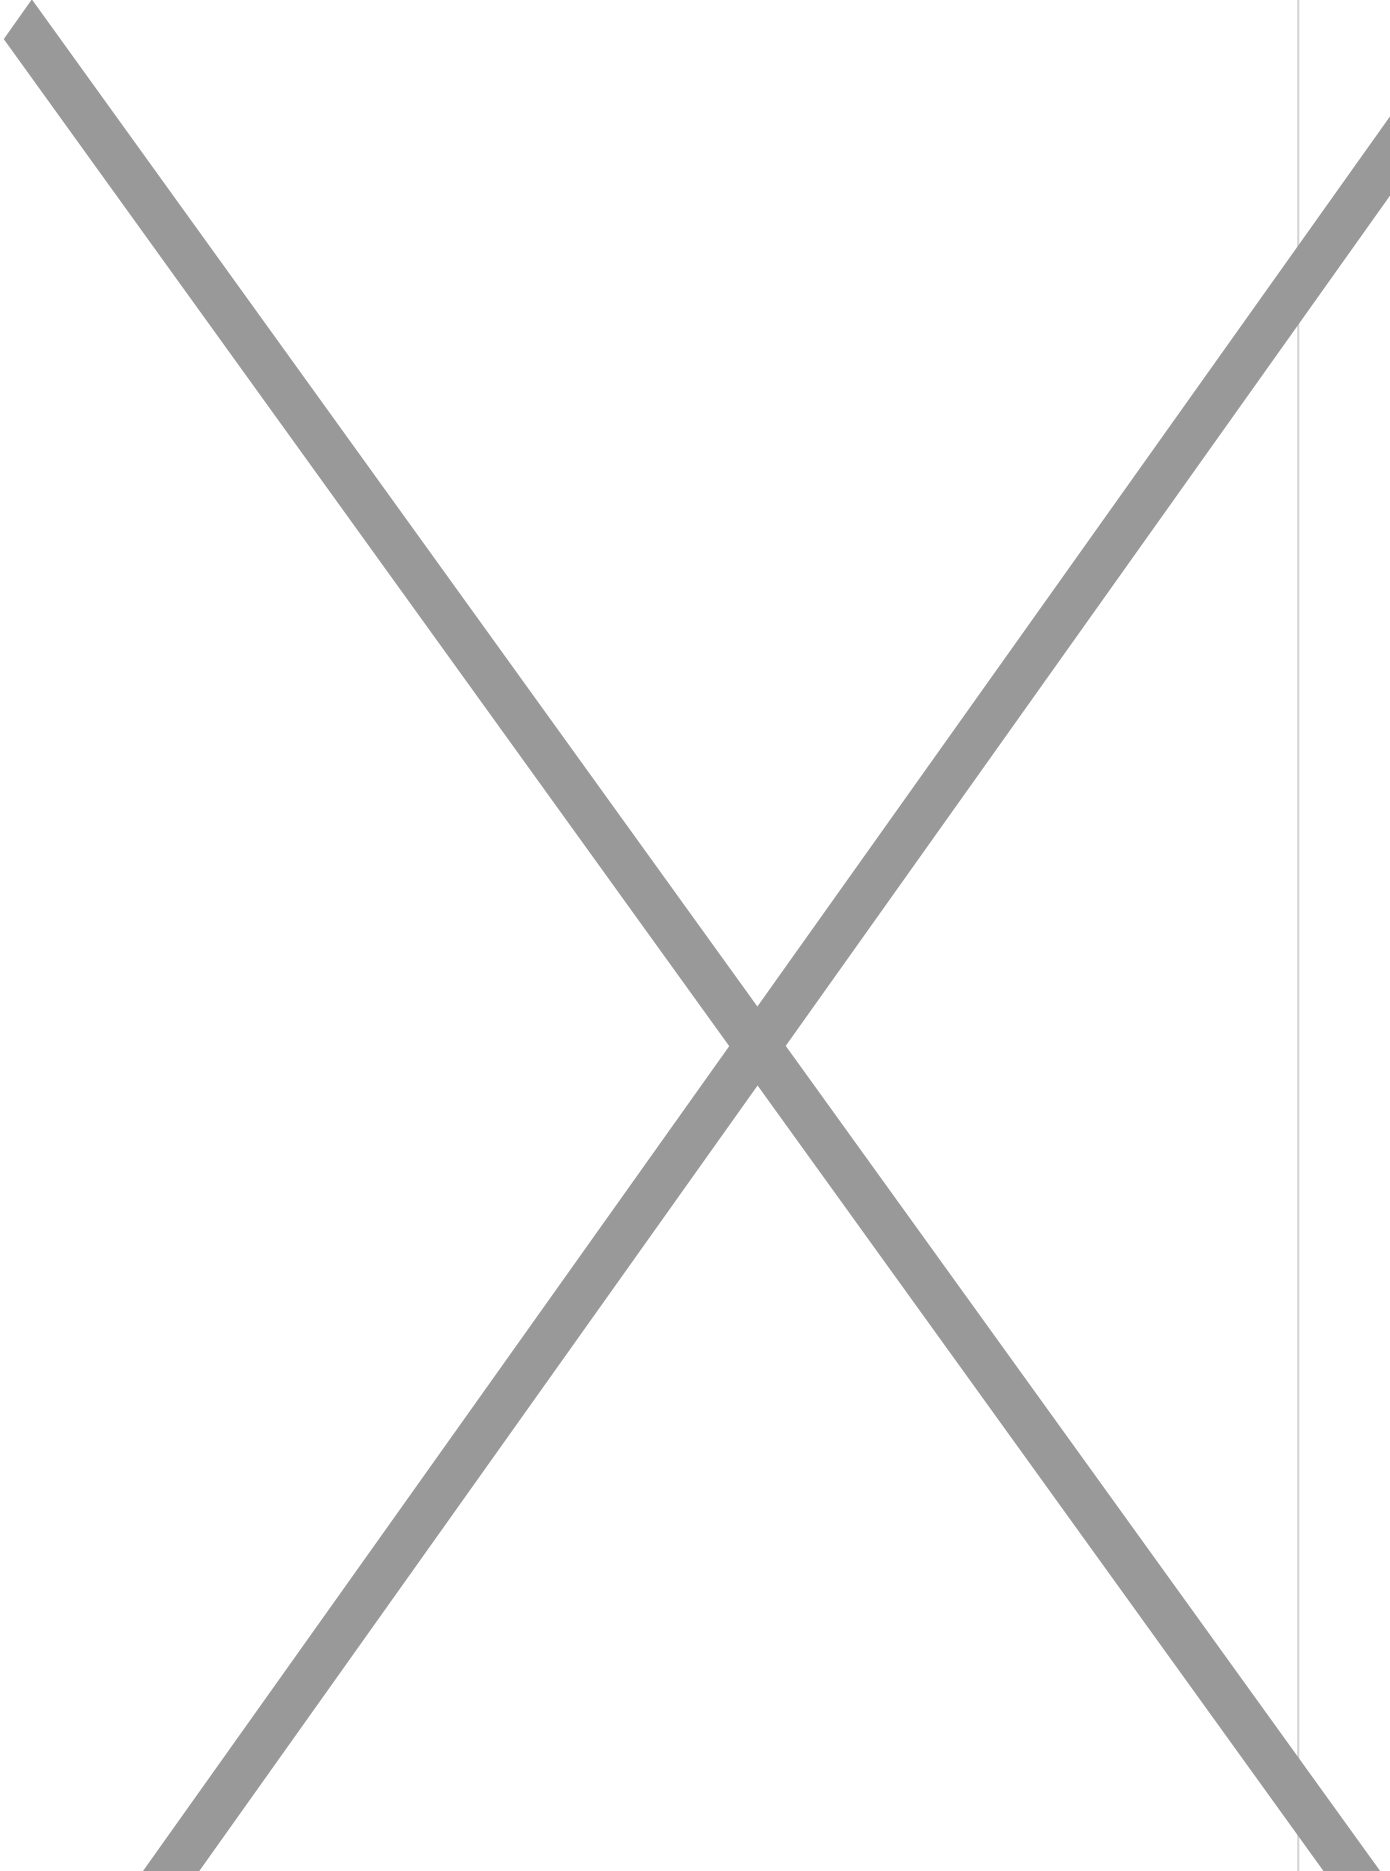

Havana, June 17 (RHC)-- The I International Biennial of Political Humor runs through Friday, June 28th, in Havana.

With the fight against fascism as the main theme, the event gathered together 40 artists from 22 countries -- with graphic exhibitions, theoretical spaces, workshops, theatrical and audiovisual presentations, as well as concerts and other offers in communities around the Cuban capital

The central exhibition of the event is located at the Galeria 23 y 12 -- at Calle 12 y Avenida 23 in the Havana neighborhood of Vedado -- and is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday thru Friday and 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday.

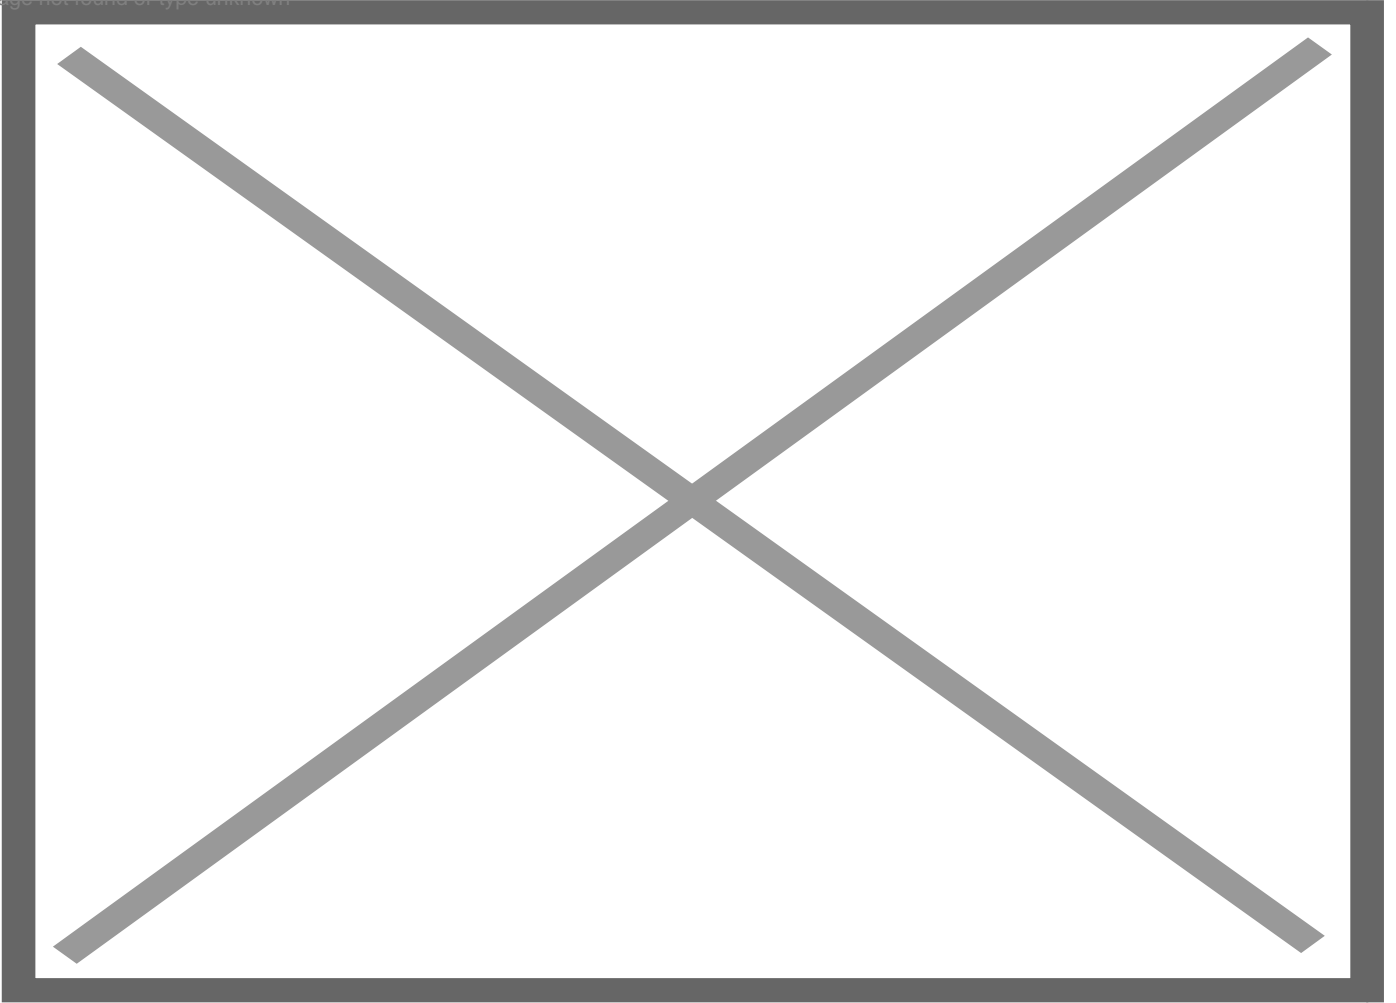

Below are several of the artistic exhibits at Galeria 23 y 12:
