Gaza City, June 22 (RHC)-- The Palestinian Football Association (PFA) has said that a Palestinian football player and his family were killed in an Israeli bombing of their house in the city of Gaza. The PFA confirmed on Saturday that Al-Ahli Gaza footballer Ahmad Abu al-Atta, 34, his wife, and his children lost their lives after Israeli warplanes targeted their home near the Latin Church in Gaza.

Atta was the third Al-Ahli Gaza football player to be killed by Israeli bombardment since the beginning of Israel's ongoing genocidal war on Gaza in October 2023. He bagged 8 goals in his 10-year career, during which, he moved amongst the best clubs in Gaza, celebrating a variety of major titles, including the Gazan Premier League.

Two other Al-Ahli Gaza football players -- Muhammad Barakat and Anas Iqilan -- have been previously killed during Israeli genocidal war on the Strip.
