Havana, October 25 (RHC)-- Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez met this Friday with his Hungarian counterpart, Péter Szijjártó, in the context of the official visit he is making to that European nation.

In his profile on the social network X, the Cuban foreign minister described the meeting as excellent and fruitful, which he said will contribute to strengthening ties between the two countries and strengthening political-diplomatic dialogue.

He pointed out that the signing of three bilateral agreements shows interest on both sides to continue developing bilateral cooperation.

Rodríguez visits Hungary at the invitation of the Government of that country, president of the European Union, on the 50th anniversary of the presence in this country of Raúl Roa, Foreign Minister of Dignity.

"We hope to continue to deepen the existing ties between both countries and with the European Union," said the head of Cuban diplomacy when reporting on his stay in Hungary.
