Israel continues sowing death in Gaza

Havana, Nov. 9 (RHC) At least 51 Palestinians were killed and dozens injured in a new day of Israeli genocide that entered its 401th day in the Gaza Strip.

According to medical sources, an Israeli shelling on a house in Jabalia camp in the northern coastal enclave killed more than 30 people and wounded dozens, most of them children and women.

The Zionist military shelled a residential block near Hamza Mosque in Jabalia area, killing four Palestinians and injuring others.

They also targeted a medical center of the Palestinian Red Crescent, injuring several of its employees.

In western Gaza City, militants targeted a school housing displaced person in the Shatee camp.

The attack on the school, which is affiliated with the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA), killed 12 Palestinians, including children and women, and wounded about 30 others.

In the south of the Palestinian Territory, four people, including two children, were killed in a bombing in the Al-Mashrou area, east of the city of Rafah.

For its part, the Palestinian Ministry of Health announced that the Israeli occupier committed six massacres in the Gaza Strip during the past 48 hours, killing 78 civilians and wounding 214.

He added that the number of victims during the 398 days of aggression has reached 43,469 dead and 102,561 wounded, while thousands of victims remain under the rubble and in the streets and ambulances and civil defense teams are unable to reach them.

On the other hand, the occupation authorities issued evacuation and forced displacement orders for several neighborhoods of Gaza City, while the Palestinian Civil Defense appealed to the international community to rescue some 80 thousand people trapped in the north of the Gaza Strip and suffering from a total lack of food and medicine.
