Washington, November 11 (RHC)-- In Washington, DC, sources close to liberal Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor say she has no intention to resign.

Some Democrats have privately pushed the 70-year-old justice to step down to give President Biden a chance to nominate a successor before Trump takes office on January 20.

Meanwhile, a coalition of groups have announced plans to hold a “People’s March on Washington” on Saturday, January 18, two days before Trump’s inauguration. Protest organizers include Planned Parenthood, the ACLU and the Women’s March.
