Ramallah, January 15 (RHC)-- In the occupied West Bank, at least six Palestinians, including a 15-year-old boy and three brothers, were killed in an Israeli airstrike on the Jenin refugee camp Tuesday. The Wafa news agency reported Israeli forces fired three missiles at a group of people, injuring several others.

The attack came amid more intense Israeli raids across the West Bank in which at least another 12 Palestinians were arrested.

Meanwhile, Israel has continued near-daily attacks on southern Lebanon in violation of a November ceasefire with Hezbollah, with Israeli forces blowing up houses and bulldozing roads in several villages.
