

Sick-Out held at Barnard College to protest expulsion of pro-Palestinian students

Image not found or type unknown

Image Credit: Instagram/@cuapartheiddivest

New York, February 28 (RHC)-- In New York City, students at Barnard and Columbia University took part in a sick-out on Thursday to protest the expulsion of two Barnard students for participating in a Palestinian rights protest that allegedly disrupted a class called "History of Modern Israel."

On Wednesday, dozens of students took over a floor of Barnard College, dispersing only after Barnard's administration agreed to meet with them and hear their grievances.

[SOURCE: DEMOCRACY NOW]

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/377596-sick-out-held-at-barnard-college-to-protest-expulsion-of-pro-palestinian-students>

Radio Habana Cuba