Hollywood, March 2 (RHC)-- At the Oscar awards ceremony Sunday evening, Guy Pearce, nominated for best supporting actor for his role in The Brutalist, expressed his support for Palestine on the red carpet, adding that such acts of solidarity are “the least we can do.”

Israel today said that it would cut off humanitarian aid to Gaza, a violation of the ceasefire deal.

“I’m just always on the case of trying to recognize Palestine and it having as much support as it possibly can because it’s what it absolutely needs,” said Guy Pearce.
