

Cuban First Vice President Visits FIHAV 2014

Havana, November 5 (RHC-acn) -- Cuba's First Vice President Miguel Diaz-Canel has visited the International Trade Fair of Havana, FIHAV 2104.

Diaz-Canel told ACN news agency that this trade show is of particular importance to the nation in its efforts to attract foreign investment, particularly after the passing of a new law that regulates this activity in Cuba.

The first vice president toured different pavilions, and at Germany's pavilion, he exchanged opinions with some of the entrepreneurs that were showcasing their products. He took the chance to speak about the incentives the new law will give investors and pointed to the importance the Cuban government gives to this event.
