

TripAdvisor Says Cuba Has Best All-Inclusive Hotel of the World

Havana, November 13 (RHC) -- Cuba has the best tourist complex in the All Inclusive modality worldwide, the Royalton Cayo Santa Maria, says a report issued on Wednesday by the specialized website TripAdvisor.

The five-star facility, operated by the Canadian firm Blue Diamond, is located in the famous Jardines del Rey keys.

The Royalton Cayo Santa Maria came in first place among 25 most popular all-inclusive hotels in the world, according to the Traveler's Choice 2014 report issued every year by TripAdvisor, which bases its findings on customer reviews.

Other hotel facilities included on the list are the Iberostar Grand Hotel Paraiso, of Mexico; the Kurumba Maldives, in the Maldives Islands; Le Blanc Spa Resort and the Secrets Maroma Beach Riviera, the two of them in Cancun, Mexico.

Another Cuban jewel appears in 20th place: the Melia Cayo Coco Hotel, also in Jardines del Rey keys, located off the north-central coast of the Cuban archipelago.
