

Fidel Castro Meets with Brazilian Scholar Frei Betto

Havana, January 28 (RHC) -- Cuban Revolution leader Fidel Castro met on Tuesday evening with outstanding Brazilian scholar Frei Betto.

Fidel and Frei Betto addressed several national and international issues during their meeting, according to this morning's edition of Granma newspaper. Betto also referred to his visit with Pope Francis last April and commented on his lectures during his current stay in Cuba.

The Granma article notes that the meeting was marked by the deep and fraternal relations between Fidel and Betto.
