

Cubans Honor Hugo Chavez on Anniversary of His Death

Havana, March 4 (RHC) — The Cuban Association of the United Nations – the ACNU - will hold a ceremony in Havana tomorrow to honor the memory of the late Bolivarian Leader Hugo Chávez.

Radio Havana Cuba journalist Pedro Martínez Pírez, Head of the Press Commission of ACNU, told reporters that the ceremony will be co-sponsored by the Radio Announcers Section of the Cuban Union of Writers and Artists, on the occasion of the second anniversary of the death of the Venezuelan Leader, who passed away on March 5th, 2013.

Martínez Pírez said that during the ceremony, participants will hear statements by Hugo Chavez about the first time he listened to Radio Havana Cuba and heard the voice of the leader of the Cuban Revolution, Fidel Castro.

On June 10, 2010, at the Second National Scientific Meeting of Radio Announcers, Cuba proposed to the Hispanic American Federation of Radio Announcers to name Hugo Chavez as honorary Chair of that organization. The initiative was unanimously approved by Cuban and foreign delegates attending the meeting.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/48399-cubans-honor-hugo-chavez-on-anniversary-of-his-death>

Radio Habana Cuba