

Iraq Urges Coalition Air Support in Battle to Free Tikrit

Tikrit, March 16 (Xinhua) -- A top Iraqi army officer said on Monday that Iraqi troops need U.S.-led coalition air support to recapture the city of Tikrit, after two weeks of a major offensive stalled against Islamic State (IS) militants.

Lt. Gen. Abdul-Wahab al-Saadi, head of the Operations Command of Salahudin province, said a request had been made to the Defense Ministry to demand intervention of coalition air support.
