

Vice Presidents of Angola and Cuba Assess Cooperation

Luanda, March 18 (RHC) — The Vice Presidents of Angola, Manuel Domingos Vicente, and Cuba, Miguel Díaz-Canel Bermúdez, met on Tuesday afternoon, in Luanda, to discuss cooperation between the two countries.

They did not address the press at a meeting held at Cidada Alta.

The Angolan Foreign minister, Georges Rebelo Chikoti, also attended the meeting, as well as members of the Cuban delegation, including Havana's ambassador to Angola, Gisela Rivera.

The Vice President of State and Ministers of Cuba began on Tuesday afternoon a three-day working visit to Angola.

Angola and Cuba cooperate mainly in the fields of education, health, defense, security, construction, culture, science and technology.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/49775-vice-presidents-of-angola-and-cuba-assess-cooperation>

Radio Habana Cuba