

Ellen Ray, Co-Publisher of Covert Action Information Bulletin, Dies at 75

Washington, June 12 (RHC)-- The documentary filmmaker, publisher, journalist and activist Ellen Ray has died at the age of 75.

Ellen Ray was a co-publisher of the magazine Covert Action Information Bulletin, which exposed CIA covert actions around the world, publishing the names of hundreds of CIA agents. As a result, the law changed, making it illegal.

As head of Sheridan Square Press, she published the memoir of New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison, which became the basis of Oliver Stone's Academy Award-winning movie, "JFK."

Ellen Ray is survived by her husband, attorney Bill Schaap.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/58958-ellen-ray-co-publisher-of-covert-action-information-bulletin-dies-at-75>

Radio Habana Cuba