

Cuban Diplomatic Delegation Travels to Argentina to Strengthen Ties

Buenos Aires, June 22 (RHC) – Cuban Deputy Foreign Minister Marcelino Medina is traveling on Monday to Argentina for an official visit. The visit aims to strengthen diplomatic ties between both governments.

On Monday, Medina will be received by his Argentinean counterpart, Eduardo Zuaín, followed by a dialogue with other officials of Argentina's Foreign Ministry.

The Cuban delegation will also meet with officials from the Science and Technology Ministry and the visit will culminate with a meeting between Medina and Argentina's Foreign Minister, Héctor Timmerman.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/59943-cuban-diplomatic-delegation-travels-to-argentina-to-strengthen-ties>

Radio Habana Cuba