

New All-Inclusive Resort Opens in Cuba

Havana, June 25 (RHC) — Global hotel company Warwick International Hotels is opening a new resort in Cuba, the Caribbean Journal reports.

The Warwick Cayo Santa Maria Cuba is slated to open August 15th on the islet of Santa Maria. The all-inclusive resort is set on 26 hectares of gardens on the sea, about 45 minutes from Cuba's Santa Clara International Airport.

The 800-room property includes 16 suites, eight restaurants and 1 kilometer of beach. Warwick also manages the Naviti Beach Club in Cuba's Varadero resort area.
