

Univision, NBC Drop Donald Trump over Comments on Mexican Immigrants

New York, June 30 (RHC)-- Two major networks have cut ties to Donald Trump over his recent comments denigrating Mexican immigrants. Announcing his Republican presidential bid this month, Trump branded Mexicans who move to the U.S. criminals and "rapists."

Calling Trump's remarks "insulting," Univision, the largest Spanish-language TV network in the U.S., says it will no longer air the Trump-owned Miss USA pageant. NBC also says it will no longer broadcast Miss USA. It will continue airing the reality show Celebrity Apprentice, but without Trump's involvement.
