

Cuban Five Conclude Visit to Angola

Luanda, July 8 (RHC) -- The five Cuban anti-terrorism fighters are wrapping up on Wednesday a courtesy visit to Angola, where they'll meet with Vice President Manuel Vicente.

The Five, as Gerardo Hernandez, Ramon Labañino, Antonio Guerrero, Rene Gonzalez and Fernando Gonzalez are known internationally, will also attend a gathering at the headquarters of the Organization of Angolan Women.

This country is the last destination of their African tour, which first took them to South Africa and then to Namibia.

As part of the program, the revolutionary fighters laid a wreath on July 6th at the monument to Agostinho Neto, the first president of this African country.

Later, they had a courtesy meeting with the vice president of the ruling Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola, Roberto de Almeida.

During that first day, the Cuban Five also visited the Alto Las Cruces Cemetery to lay a wreath in the place where the remains of the internationalist combatant Raul Diaz Arguelles rest.

Radio Habana Cuba