

Upcoming 10th Communist Youth Congress Slated to be Transformational

Havana, July 10 (RHC)-- The First Secretary of the UJC, the Young Communists of Cuba, Yuniaski Crespo, predicts that the Tenth Congress of the political organization -- to be held in Havana on the 18th and 19th of this month -- will be a transformational, inclusive and critical encounter.

Speaking with reporters in Havana, the youth leader said the conference agenda will begin with the presentation of awards to outstanding youth, who will meet with the Cuban Five and their relatives.

She also said that the delegates will discuss issues such as the development of new technologies in Cuba, the continuation of studies, job placement and participation of young workers in the updating of the Cuban economic model.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/62084-upcoming-10th-communist-youth-congress-slated-to-be-transformational>

Radio Habana Cuba