

Black Man in Alabama Dies After Being Pepper-Sprayed by Police

Birmingham, July 13 (RHC)-- In Tuscaloosa, Alabama, an African-American man has died after being pepper-sprayed by police. Police say they responded to a report 35-year-old Anthony Ware was sitting on a porch with a gun.

Police say they chased Ware into the woods, where they claim he resisted arrest and was pepper-sprayed and placed in handcuffs. Ware collapsed and was later pronounced dead. His death is under investigation.
