

Cuban Vice President Continues Tour of Angola

Luanda, July 15 (RHC) — The Angolan Minister of National Defense, João Lourenço, met on Tuesday morning in Luanda with Cuban Vice President Ricardo Cabrisas, with whom he exchanged views on relations between the two countries.

Ricardo Cabrisas has been in Angola since Monday for a four-day working visit aimed at strengthening bilateral cooperation.

On the first day of his visit, the Cuban official led the delegation of his country at the meeting with the Angolan side, headed by the Minister of State and Head of the President's Civil Office, Edeltrudes Costa, during which the state of bilateral cooperation was assessed.
