

Angola and Cuba Work Toward Systematizing Actions to Strengthen Cooperation

Luanda, July 17 (RHC) -- Cuban Vice President of the Council of Ministers Ricardo Cabrisas concluded on Thursday a four-day visit to Angola, where the political determination of both governments to strengthen cooperation, was ratified.

During the first day, Cabrisas had a working meeting with directors from several ministries, including the Minister of State and Head of the Civil House of the Presidency, Edeltrudes Costa.

Cabrisas also met with the Angolan Vice President Manuel Vicente, with whom he reviewed bilateral ties and the strengthening of cooperation in traditional sectors, such as health, education, civil construction, energy, water, higher education, and training professionals.

Other meetings included Defense and ruling party MPLA officials.
