

Four U.S. Marines Killed in Shootings at Military Sites in Tennessee

Chattanooga, July 17 (RHC)-- Four U.S. Marines were killed and three people were injured in shootings at two separate military sites Thursday in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

The shooter, who died in a firefight, has been identified as 24-year-old Mohammad Youssuf Abdulazeez, a Kuwait-born naturalized U.S. citizen who attended high school and college in Chattanooga.

During a press conference, the FBI said the agency does not have "anything that directly ties" the suspected shooter to any international terrorist organization.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/62854-four-us-marines-killed-in-shootings-at-military-sites-in-tennessee>

Radio Habana Cuba