

Top Communist Leader Stresses Revolutionary Role of the Cuban Youth

Havana, July 20 (RHC) -- The Second Secretary of Cuba's Communist Party Jose Ramon Machado Ventura expressed the deep conviction that Cuba has and will always have in strong, well-prepared young people that will continue to honor the legacy of the Cuban Revolution.

In his closing speech at the 10th Congress of the Young Communist League on Sunday, Machado Ventura said that the issues debated during the forum expressed the inclusion-oriented working style of the organization, since the analysis not only addressed organization members but also all Cuban young people.

The debates expressed the young people's interest in contributing more to the complex process of transformations underway in the country.

“Once the moment comes, you are the ones who will bear the flag of the Revolution,” said Machado as he insisted on the responsibility of youth in protecting the achievements of the Revolution.
