Istanbul, July 21 (RHC)-- In Turkey, police fired tear gas and water cannons at protesters on Monday during a demonstration following a deadly bombing that killed 30 youth activists in the mostly Kurdish border town of Suruc.

Kurds in Turkey have spoken out against what they perceive to be the Turkish government's failure to confront the spread of the self-proclaimed Islamic State.

Meanwhile, in Washington, White House Press Secretary Josh Earnest condemned Monday's attack, expressing its support of the Turkish government.
