

Young Venezuelans Ratify Solidarity with Cuba

Havana, July 22 (RHC) -- Young Venezuelan members of the Movement of Friendship and Mutual Solidarity Venezuela-Cuba traveled to Havana today to participate in activities of international support for our country.

Speaking to reporters, the coordinator of the movement, Yonny Garcia, reported that 22 Venezuelans will take part in the 22nd Latin American and Caribbean Brigade that will do voluntary work in the province of Artemisa, west of the Cuban capital.

The youth leader said that the average age of the group is 27 years old, and that the main objective of the Venezuelan delegation is to learn methods and experiences in Cuba in order to apply them in the South American nation.
