

Turkish Government to Tighten Border Security After Deadly Bombing

Istanbul, July 23 (RHC)-- In Turkey, the government has announced new plans to tighten security along its border with Syria, two days after a suicide bomb killed more than 30 youth activists in the Turkish city of Suruc.

According to government officials, the suspected bomber is a Turkish citizen with possible ties to the self-proclaimed Islamic State.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/63558-turkish-government-to-tighten-border-security-after-deadly-bombing>

Radio Habana Cuba