

Cuba: An Example of International Solidarity

Havana, July 24 (RHC) --- European and Latin American social activists and members of the 22nd Latin American and Caribbean Brigade of volunteer work and solidarity with Cuba, described the island as a standard and example for the peoples of the world.

At the Julio Antonio Mella International Camp, located near the town of Caimito in Artemisa Province, members of the contingent celebrated the restoration of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States.

The Latin American solidarity brigade is composed of 132 activists from 10 countries, which will stay in Cuba until August 7th.
