

FBI Arrests Florida Man After Supplying Him with Explosives

Miami, July 30 (RHC)-- The FBI has arrested a Florida man for allegedly plotting an attack in support of the self-proclaimed Islamic State, after an FBI informant supplied him with a explosive device.

The 23-year-old man, named Harlem Suarez, had reportedly been under FBI surveillance for months.

Earlier this week, an FBI agent posing as an operative for ISIL took Suarez to meet another FBI agent, who gave Suarez an inert explosive device and told him how to use it. When Suarez got out of the car, the agents arrested him.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/64326-fbi-arrests-florida-man-after-supplying-him-with-explosives>

Radio Habana Cuba